NWSSP Junior Doctors Relocation

What Can I Claim For if I Move Home?

If you have moved home as a result of your rotation on the All Wales training scheme, you may be eligible to claim Relocation Expenses. Below are common scenarios which will help you determine the expenses you may be entitled to claim.

Please note that some expenses may be taxable in accordance with HMRC regulations

I am Renting

This is my Permanent Home

I am moving into a higher valued property

- Excess Rent
- Cost of preliminary visit
- Cost of travel from old to new home
- Estate Agent Fees
- House Contents Removal

I am moving into a similar valued property

- Cost of preliminary visit
- Cost of travel from old to new home
- Estate Agent Fees
- House Contents Removal

This is my Working Home (temporary)

- Cost of preliminary visit
- Cost of travel from old to new home
- Estate Agent Fees
- Return Home at Weekends
- Rent Allowance

I am Buying

I am a first time buyer

- Cost of travel from old to new home
- Cost of preliminary visit
- House Contents Removal

This is an Owner to Owner Occupation

I have sold my former property

I have moved to temporary rented accommodation whilst looking to purchase a property

- Cost of travel from old to new home
- House Contents Removal
- Return Home at Weekends
- Search for Accommodation

I have moved into my new property

- Cost of preliminary visit
- Cost of travel from old to new home
- Estate Agent Fees
- Land Registry Fees
- Legal Fees on Purchase and Sale
- Stamp Duty
- Survey Fees

I have not sold my former property but have moved into my new property

- Continuing Commitments Allowance
- Cost of preliminary visit
- Cost of travel from old to new home
- House Contents Removal